FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. ALEXANDRIA AGENCY

NORTHERN ASSURANCE COMP'Y., LONDON. HEAD OFFICE FOR THE UNITED STATES, No. 37 South Third Street, Philadelphia. CAPITAL......$6,298,800 00

Paid up Capital and Surplus 2,194,111 02 SECURITY TO POLICY HOLDERS. THIS old and responsible Company insures Against loss or damage by Fire, almost every description of property, and offers to Merchants and others desiring insurance, the security of an actual Capital of $6,298,800, for the whole of which, and for any liabilities beyond, the Shareholders are INDIVIDUALLY RESPONSIBLE, even to the extent of their entire fortunes. The Shareholders number about one thousand, and as-a large portion of these are persons of great wealth, the most ample provisions exist for meeting every possible claim against the Company. SUBJECT TO THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES. In appointing an Agent for the United States, the Company has empowered him "to appear to and accept any action or legal proceedings insti-tuted against or by said Company, in the same manner as if the Company were a Corporation or Company established by the laws of the United States, or any of the several States." PROVISION FOR PAYMENT OF LOSSES IN

THE UNITED STATES. A SPECIAL PERMANENT FUND HAS BEEN PLACED AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE AGENT AT PHILADELPHIA, TO ENABLE HIM TO ADJUST AND PROMPTLY PAY ALL Losses, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO LONDON. LIBERAL TO THE INSURED.

The uniform course of the Company has always been a liberal one towards Policy Holders. No just claim has ever been disputed, and prompt payment of losses is a standing rule. During the past year, losses exceeding $525,000 were paid. Losses paid as soon as the amount is ascertained. ANNUAL INCOME. The Income of the Company is now about $1,-000,000, increasing gradually each year, showing that it has the confidence of the different commu-Nos. 5 and 7 South Fairfax-st. nities in which business is done. RATE OF PREMIUM. The Rate of Premium will be moderate, and in all cases will be based upon the character of the owner or occupant, and the merits of the risk. The conditions of Insurance are framed with the greatest liberality.

CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favora-ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two (OGNAC BRANDY; Port Wine; Sherry do., of years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a mber, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close. H. W. Thomas, Thomas T. Hill, T. B. Robertson, R. H. Carter, Dr. R. H. Stabler, Wm. Wright, Christopher Neale, R. F. Lester. P. D. MISCELLANEOUS READING.

PERSONNEL OF THE MORMON PROPHET .- A correspondent of the San Prancisco Herald, writing from Salt Lake city, thus describes

Brigham Young, the Mormon Prophet:

Brigham Young, the Mormon Prophet, or, to use his own words, the "President of the Church of Jesus Christ and Latter Day Saints," is a light-haired, thick set, medium sized, rather round-shouldered, shrewdlooking man of nearly three-score years, and of cheerful and commanding appearance.-He used to shave closely. Figuratively he may do so now. But corporeally, luxuriant sandy-brown whiskers, beard and mustachios adorn his prophetic face. In fact the "Mormon War" gave a mighty impulse to the hirsute movement in Utah. In that time of trouble nobody thought of shaving, and as yet the smooth faces have scarcely regained their wonted vantage ground. Brigham is a live speaker. Under his oratory saints or sinners seldom slide off into mystic dreamland. Generally when he sits in meeting, and sometimes when he is preaching, he wears a hat or handkerchief on his head .---As he rises in the stand, a manifest interest is excited, which becomes contagious, and rapidly pervades the whole assembly, while coughs, ahems, and various shufflings are outward and vulgar and visible signs of awakened attention, and preparation to hear something. His manner is calm, deliberate, self-satisfied and confident, with very little gesticulation, except when fired up with his subject. His voice is far from unpleasant, not very powerful, but still well capable of filling the Tabernacle, and is slightly tinged with that hard, inflexible quality common to uncultivated voices, which have been strained by much loud speaking to large assemblies. His utterance is short and sharp, as though, just at the instant of their leaving the door of his lips, he suddenly communicated to his words an extra degree of impulse. This peculiarity, in passages of more than ordinary energy, contributes to impart to his speech a piercing, cutting, thrilling effect. His influence over his hearers is extraordinary. Perhaps, in power to attract and rivet the attention of his audience, he is not excelled by any living orator. This may be partly owing to his peculiar posi-tion. Certain it is, that the magic of his voice sways a Salt Lake congregation as no June is a splendid number, contains a superb other voice can. It is remarkable, the dogwill sit under the oftimes, dry, wordy, at last hearing a spirit stirring word from Brigham. DR. THE CASE OF THE REV. Mr. HATCH .- An extraordinary trial for perjury had occupied the Central Criminal Court in London for nearly a week. It may be remembered that the Rev. Mr. Hatch was recently found guilty of committing an indecent assault upon two little girls committed to his care as pupils, and was sentenced to a long imprisonment. In proof of his innocence he brought a charge of perjury against the eldest of the and letters to Humboldt, and others, translated girls, Eugenia Plummer, aged eleven years, from the second German edition, by Friedrich and she has been found guilty of the charge. The child is supposed to have been prompted by her mother. She was sentenced to three weeks imprisonment, and two years in a reformatory school-but the sentence was sup-
